Welcome

Welcome to Hull Truck Theatre's Spring/ Summer season, where the stage is set for a line-up of unmissable entertainment and unforgettable moments! We are delighted to present an eclectic selection of productions that will captivate audiences of all ages and tastes.

This Spring/ Summer, get ready to embark on a theatrical adventure with five standout shows. Animal Farm promises to be a thought-provoking and entertaining production that brings George Orwell's timeless allegory to life, whilst Little Shop of Horrors will have you laughing and singing along as it weaves a delightful tale of love, laughter, and killer plants. Pilot Theatre will be returning with their new production A Song for Ella Grey, offering a moving and captivating experience and the John Godber Company will present the very first play John ever wrote Happy Jack.

Blackeyed Theatre will also present a cornerstone of modern musical theatre: Oh What a Lovely War.

These shows are all available as part of our Drama Deal so why not try something new or organise another night out with friends to take advantage of this brilliant offer.

But that's not all – we're proud to feature a new local gem in our programme. Guts! The Musical written by Maureen Lennon and performed by a Community Cast tells the extraordinary story of Hull's fish packers fight for equal pay for equal work, providing a fascinating glimpse into the city's rich maritime heritage. It's a tale that's close to home, and is sure to resonate with our audiences.

For families and children, our productions through the school holidays are packed with excitement. The Herd's Snowmen is the perfect activity for that first chilly week of the new year and the on-stage adaptation of the three Shark in the Park books will brighten up February half term, alongside our successful Great Adventures programme in each school holiday offering an opportunity to take the crafting out of the house and into a fun interactive play that uses what you have made.

Beyond the world of drama, Hull Truck Theatre continues to bring you a rich tapestry of music, comedy and cinema, ensuring that there's something for everyone. So, whether you're a theatre aficionado, a family looking for fun, or simply seeking a great night out, our Spring/Summer season has it all.

We can't wait to welcome you to the heart of Hull and share these moments of laughter, inspiration, and pure entertainment.

Access

Audio Description provides information about the visual elements of a show, for those who are blind or visually impaired. The Box Office can provide an infra-red headset, upon request, and audio description is delivered live, in between dialogue.

Touch Tours are available 90 mins prior to the audio described show and last approx. 30 mins. Touch Tours allow blind and visually impaired patrons the opportunity to familiarise themselves with the set, costumes, and props, ahead of the show. Spaces must be booked with the Box Office, 24hrs in advance, or online when buying tickets.

Theatre Captions are similar to television subtitles and convert spoken word into visible text that provides those who are Deaf, deafened or hard of hearing with access to live performances.

British Sign Language (BSL) performances enable Deaf BSL users to understand the performance through the signs of an interpreter, who is on stage during the performance. Performances with integrated BSL involve the BSL interpreter being part of the action onstage.

Relaxed performances are specifically designed to welcome people who will benefit from a more relaxed environment. They include additional lighting, a friendly attitude to noise and movement in the theatre, and we can also offer additional space if requested.

Assistance dogs are welcome in the theatre and performance spaces. If you are going to be accompanied by an assistance dog please contact the Box Office, in advance of booking, so that we can make arrangements to either seat you together during the show or dog-sit for you.

Baby Friendly Performances are designed for customers with children under 18 months. These performances will have a relaxed atmosphere and friendly attitude to noise and movement in the theatre. Facilities include: additional changing tables both inside and outside of the auditorium, highchairs, bottle warming, buggy park, and a baby play area.

Booking Access Tickets Online

If you regularly require a wheelchair space or best view of captions screens/ BSL interpreter seats, we would love to show you how to book them online yourself. You can visit the Access page on our website and find instructions under 'Accessible Guides & Info', or contact the Box Office.

Animal Farm

Based on the novel by George Orwell

Adapted by Ian Wooldridge

Directed by Iqbal Khan

A powerful re-telling of George Orwell's chilling and timeless classic. When the downtrodden animals of Manor Farm overthrow their master and take over, they imagine it is the beginning of a life of freedom and equality for all. However, over time a cunning and brutal elite among them, masterminded by the pigs Napoleon and Snowball, gradually take control. Soon the other animals discover that they are not all as equal as they once thought and find themselves ensnared as one tyranny is replaced with another. Orwell's enduring and devastating satire about the corruption of power will be brought vividly to life on stage in this compelling drama.

Hull Truck Theatre & Hull Maritime present a community production of

Guts! The Musical

The Story of the Hull Fish Packers

By Maureen Lennon

Directed by Tom Saunders

The year is 1984. 15 women in a fish packing factory in Hull are about to make history... In the decade that brought us the Walkman, MTV, chicken nuggets and shoulder pads, something else was brewing: a revolution about equal pay. Following Union Rep. Peter Allen on his fight for factory workers, this is a whirlwind re-telling of the groundbreaking case which changed the equalities act in the UK forever.

Demanding equal pay for equal work, should be easy, right? Wrong! This story is an important part of our city's rich maritime history, which goes way beyond the Headscarf Revolutionaries. An upbeat and uplifting tale about justice, the power of female friendship and... fish... with a whole load of hilarity and musical joy thrown in for good measure. Join us as the whole community come together to present this highly entertaining farcical drama which is based on a true story.

Made in Dagenham meets Barbie (The Movie).

A Song For Ella Grey

Written by Zoe Cooper

Based on the novel by David Almond

Directed by Esther Richardson

“A darkly romantic tale that sings of the madness of youth and the ache of love.”

This new production is a magical retelling of the Orpheus myth, full of music, sound and storytelling. Claire and her best friend, Ella Grey, are ordinary kids from ordinary families in an ordinary world. They and their friends fall in and out of love, play music and dance, stare at the stars, yearn for excitement, and have parties on the beautiful beaches of Northumberland. One day a stranger, a musician called Orpheus, appears on the beach, and entrances them all but particularly Ella. A tale of modern friends and ancient forces, a tale told since the dawn of time and told again today.

Oh What A Lovely War

By Theatre Workshop, Charles Chiltern, Gerry Raffles and members of the original cast

Roll up, Roll up! And take your seat for the ever-popular 'War Game'!

A cornerstone of modern musical theatre and one of the very greatest stage satires, Oh What A Lovely War is an extraordinary theatrical journey bringing to life the folly, farce and tragedy of the First World War.

Wildly satirical, visually stunning and deeply moving, it's the musical that revolutionised modern theatre; an exhilarating, no-holds-barred assault on the military incompetence and inconceivable disregard for human life the First World War has come to represent.

Packed with timeless songs, razor-sharp satire and high jinks, Oh What A Lovely War is a hilarious, heart-breaking snapshot of life for those caught in the crossfire of conflict, a unanimous voice from the trenches and a timely warning from the theatre of war itself. Now, more than ever, it holds a mirror up to the world and speaks to us all.

John Godber Company in association with Hull Truck Theatre and Cast, Doncaster

Happy Jack

By John Godber

Starring John Godber & Jane Thornton

The hilarious, touching and political Happy Jack is brought especially to Hull Truck Theatre starring BAFTA and multi-award-winning couple John Godber and Jane Thornton.

Capturing the ups and downs of ordinary working-class family life – at the coal face, in the pit village, on the donkeys and by the fireside, this was John Godber's very first play, written when he was 25.

He will be joined by wife Jane Thornton (Scary Bikers, Shafted, Sunny Side Up) in the show which brought them together over 40 years ago.

This production is in celebration of miners and their wives all over the world, but especially in Yorkshire.
