

Hull Truck Theatre Grow Festival 2024

You can book tickets online at www.hulltruck.co.uk, by calling the Box Office on 01482 323638 or by popping into the theatre on Ferensway.

If you are unable to book online, communicate via telephone, or visit us in person, please email boxoffice@hulltruck.co.uk

Welcome

Join us for Grow Festival 2024, a celebration of new and contemporary theatre and screenings for artists, creatives and audiences alike! With networking opportunities to strengthen industry connections and meet new contacts, and drop-in sessions for 1:1 support, there really is something for artists in all stages of their career in this year's exciting programme.

Booking & Box Office Information

The Box Office is open Tuesday to Saturday, 11am until 5pm and from 1 hour before the show on performance nights.

Telephone: 01482 32 36 38

Website: www.hulltruck.co.uk

Tickets can be booked online, 24hrs a day.

Offers

Buy tickets for all three paid performances for just £24 (20% saving)

Thu 6th June, 8.00pm, Godber Studio

Grow Festival Launch Event: Digital Shorts

Join us for the launch of our annual artist development festival. This event will give artists the chance to meet other creatives in the city and to also enjoy a special preview of our Digital Shorts project: A series of short films created with local writers, including Tom Wells, Evie Guttridge, Elle Ideson, Jim Norris and Hannah Scorer.

Tickets: £6.50*(No Conc.)

Sat 8th June, 8pm, Godber Studio

Wolf Pack Theatre – Knickers (Sharing + Q&A)

Jodie owns a coffee shop...Jodie is skint...Jodie needs money...Jodie gets an idea...

This laugh-out-loud comedy written by Kira Holmes explores the extreme lengths Jodie will go to, to make ends meet during the cost-of-living crisis. Selling her knickers online, what could possibly go wrong?

This is a unique opportunity for artists and audiences to experience a piece of work in development. Wolf Pack Theatre will also be teaming up with financial and mental health charities and support agencies to help signpost audiences to free help and advice, should they be experiencing similar pressures to those explored in the show.

Tickets: £13.50*

Tue 11 June, 7pm, Godber Studio

Mary and the Hyenas: Rehearsed Reading with Pilot Theatre

Catch a glimpse of this new piece of theatre before Mary and the Hyenas roars onto the stage. Telling the tale of the iconic British writer, philosopher, and feminist Mary Wollstonecraft and set against a backdrop of societal upheaval. With music by singer-songwriter Billy Nomates, and written by Hull playwright Maureen Lennon, this story delves deep into Wollstonecraft's life, from her early struggles growing up in Beverley, to her impassioned fight for equality. Hear some of the anthems the ensemble cast will belt out in the show, and savour the words of defiance and empowerment, as a whirlwind journey through history unfolds, sweeping us up in the birth of feminism as told through the eyes of a punk-rock pioneer.

Join us as we blaze into the future. As we share an inspiring insight into our show for anyone who's had to fight for their space in the world, and for anyone who wants to change things for generations to come.

Tickets: Free

Thu 13 June, 8pm, Godber Studio

Introduction to Playwriting: Sharing

Join us for script-in-hand sharing's from the budding playwrights who have recently attended the 10-week 'Introduction to Playwrighting' course at Hull Truck Theatre.

This is an opportunity to see new work in its rawest and most exciting form!

Tickets: Free

Tue 18 June, 6pm, Godber Studio

Forget-Me-Not Screening

This 40-minute film features the shared lived experiences of four Ukrainian refugees who sought sanctuary in East Yorkshire under the Homes for Ukraine Scheme. Learn more about their journey, challenges and adapting to a new environment during this exploration of humanity.

The film also features one of the many local families who opened their homes to the refugee community.

Tickets: Free

Fri 21 June, 8pm, Godber Studio

Be Our Guest Residency: Sharing

Theatre, chips, and a pint all for £10. What's not to like? Join us for the 'First Time Out' of three new performances from local artists and companies who will 'Be Our Guest' at Hull Truck Theatre in June. Devising new work, they will be sharing their brand-new exciting creations at the end of the week-long residency.

Ellen Brammar – Where Did I Go?

After discovering she is pregnant, a brilliant and highly logical scientist must confront the dark forces that are now haunting her. This modern ghost story will interrogate what it really costs to become a mother, and how sometimes there is no escape from the darkness that wants to possess you.

Jack Fielding and Andy Ross – Who Put the ‘Glad’ in Gladiator?

You are invited to the experimental colosseum where laughter reigns supreme, and gladiators meet hilarity in the most uproarious of battles. Combining a dash of skill and a whole lotta dumb. Choose your warrior, choose your weapon. FIIIIIGHT!

Elise Gilbert – Beautiful Chaos

Have you ever felt like you're SQUEEZING into boxes you don't belong in? Beautiful Chaos will be an autobiographical one woman show that explores feeling lost in adulthood with faulty ideologies and expectations on EVERYTHING. From the way you look, to how you learn and all the silly bits in between. Beautiful Chaos is a coming of age story, a growing on stage story... it's not the answer, it is just the first step outside of the box.

Tickets: £10.00* (no conc.)

Workshops

Wed 12 June, 11am, First Floor Foyer

Grow: Connect & Collaborate Networking Event

On 12th June we will be hosting an informal artist meet-up. Whatever stage you are at in your career we are inviting artists to come together at Hull Truck Theatre to have a space to connect with other artists in the city, build a community and support one another. The session will be facilitated by Hull Truck Theatre staff.

Tickets: Free